

ABOUT THE HAY BANK

As hay prices have soared, some folks are having to decide between paying their rent or feeding their horses. Hidden Pond Farm Equine Rescue has joined forces with Dodge Grain to provide support to horse owners in temporary financial straits who can't afford hay for their horses.

This is a one-time grant, intended only for individual horse owners in desperate need.

Hidden Pond Farm Equine Rescue will field and verify requests for support, and will work with Dodge Grain to supply hay as we deem appropriate and as the account balance allows.
